

CELEBRATING DIVERSITY

Williams Kastner congratulates Sheryl Willert on being named one of the 2022 Most Influential Black Lawyers in the U.S. by Savoy Magazine.

She currently serves as Chair of the Firm's Labor & Employment Group as well as Chair of its Diversity Equity & Inclusion Committee. Sheryl served as Managing Director of the firm for more than a decade and has continued to serve on the firm's Board of Directors.

Sheryl's commitment to Diversity and Inclusion has garnered recognition from DRI, the nation's largest association of civil defense trial lawyers, which named its Diversity and Inclusion Award (The Sheryl J. Willert Pioneer Diversity Award) in Sheryl's honor. Sheryl's legal work includes advising clients, trying cases and securing appropriate resolutions to employment related matters.

Williams Kastner has a long-standing commitment to diversity and inclusion. The Firm embraces diversity through its people, its work and its support for, and participation in, community programs and projects which foster diversity. Recently, Williams Kastner became one of a few law firm sponsors of the Gregoire Fellows Program which provides scholarships to diverse students at the University of Washington and Seattle University law schools.
